

Shabbir Amanullah

DPM (CIP), MD (NIMHANS), FRCPsych (UK), CCT (UK), FRCP (Canada), DFCCA, FAPA, FIIOPM Chief of Psychiatry, Woodstock General Hospital, ON

Dr. Shabbir Amanullah is originally from Kerala. He did his Medical degree at JSS Medical college Mysore, DPM from the Central Institute of Psychiatry in Ranchi and then his MD in Psychiatry from National Institute of Mental Health and Neurosciences in Bangalore (where he won the gold medal). He then went to UK where he completed his MRCPsych and specialized in adult and geriatric psychiatry (He won the Cyril Potter Gold medal of the Birmingham Medical Institute).

He moved to Canada- Prince Edward Island where he worked for 6 years and left in 2012 after serving as Chief of Psychiatry for the Province. Dr. Amanullah currently works at Woodstock General Hospital as the Chief of Psychiatry.

He also is the;

President of the Oxford County Medical Society as well as serves as Chairman and Scientific Chair of the Indo Canadian Psychiatric Society. He is the Former Vice- Chair for the Ontario Medical Association section of Psychiatry and the current Chair of Psychiatry Programmes for OMA.

He has won many awards including; The distinguished fellow of the Canadian Psychiatric Association

In 2020- He was awarded the Outstanding Contributions in Geriatric Psychiatry award of the CAGP

He has been on the RAC3 and RAC 5 of the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada

He is the creator of the COGWALL and was one the early clinicians to use synthetic cannabinoids in dementia

Dr. Amanullah has published content in a number of peer-reviewed papers, chapters and written books including Complex clinical conundrums in psychiatry books. His research interests include, physician burnout, ADHD and autism in the elderly, and Cannabinoids in Dementia. He has presented his research at major meetings and conferences around the World and was the only Psychiatrist featured in innovationmovie.com. This documentary featured some of the worlds most creative minds talking about creativity.